Society of Women Engineers - Real Life Advice for Your Personal Brand

Real-Life Advice for Your Personal Brand

As Conference approaches, make sure your public presence is polished and ready. Join oil & gas industry leader Janeen Judah for her practical advice on building your presence through social media and how managers and recruiters use social media. Janeen will also have practical tips on how to network to managers and recruiters at Conference and other social events. The events will be online, interactive and informal – real-life practical advice from an engineering leader.

Join us at Bar Boheme in Montrose on Thursday October 11th starting at 5pm for Happy Hour, presentation at 6pm. Professionals will be available to review resumes after the presentation and you're welcome to stick around for networking. Dinner and first drink included, cash bar the rest of the evening.

Cost: $25 for members
$40 non-members

Note: (if your guest happens to be a non-member, please register them as such)

If you are a currently unemployed SWE member, please email vp_internal@swehouston.org for a discount code

RSVP by September 27th

Bio for Event

Janeen Judah retired from Chevron in April 2018 & is now a member of the Board of Directors of Patterson-UTI Energy. She was the 2017 President of the Society of Petroleum Engineers International and is a SWE Life Member. In 2014, SWE honored Janeen for her mentoring of women engineers with the Suzanne Jenniches Upward Mobility award.
